Summary

Greetings! I am a Full-Stack Developer, having recently completed a comprehensive web development course at Microverse, an esteemed online school. Proficient in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React.js, Redux, Ruby, PostgreSQL, and Ruby on Rails, I have successfully completed numerous solo and group projects.

Throughout my journey at Microverse, I honed not only my technical skills but also my communication and problem-solving abilities. Engaging in remote pair programming with talented developers from diverse backgrounds enabled me to effectively collaborate and tackle complex challenges.

Tech Stack:
• Languages: JavaScript, Ruby
• Frameworks & Libraries: React, Redux, Ruby on Rails, Bootstrap, Sass.
• Databases: PostgreSQL.
• Management & Deployment: Git, GitHub, Netlify, Render.
• Tools & Methods: RSpec, Jest, Gitflow

Drawing from my previous experience as a singer in a band and a YouTube content creator, I possess exceptional presentation and communication skills. I understand the art of captivating an audience and delivering information effectively. My multitasking capabilities were significantly enhanced through managing scripting, content creation, video and audio recording, editing, and independent marketing.

In addition to my technical expertise, I have gained valuable small-scale business experience, further enriching my skill set. My primary focus remains on utilizing my comprehensive knowledge and expertise as a Full-Stack Developer.

Excited to discuss open job opportunities as a FullStack Web developer, let's Schedule a Zoom chat! Send me an email at studiosnabeel@gmail.com
